CAUTION

Around 12:49 p.m. Monday, December 5, 2016, the Arizona Central Credit Union at 6901 W. Bell in Glendale, Arizona, was robbed by a man with a gun in a takeover-style robbery who ordered multiple individuals inside to the floor and pointing a handgun at them. The suspect was wearing a black ski mask and was armed with a silver handgun. The suspect walked up to the teller counter, showed a gun and demanded money and then fled with an unknown amount of U.S. currency. The suspect was described as a White male, with a stocky build. He is believed to be about 56-years-old, with salt and pepper hair and a moustache. The suspect was last seen leaving westbound from 71st Avenue and Juniper in a small-to-mid-size gold or tan late-model SUV. No one was physically injured during the robbery.
